BIOGRAPHY

Stephon "Humble" Long was born in Hartford, CT on August 28, 1980. Song writing at the age of 14 inspired Stephon. His passion for music and songwriting became very strong in his late teens, early 20's. At the age of 23, Humble started going to open mic, which was hosted by Room Service's own June Archer. His love for music began to grow even stronger. At the age of 24, Humble joined up with Hartford's own "Paperboyz". He debuted on a variety of songs on Paperboyz first CD titled "Young Classics". As one of the members of Paperboyz, he opened up for Weaver High Schools talent show which was hosted by Jagged Edge, as well as opening up for Lumidee. Motivated by the music that was being produced with Paperboyz, Humble chose to continue on, and work on his solo project. Humble teamed up with Michael Rucker a.k.a No Alias, and began to work on his first project titled "Quiet & Outspoken. Early 2005, Humble had a major performance at Club Arkadia in New Britain, CT in which the world-renowned DJ Craig G hosted. Humble is now working with ChaseBeats, as well as No Alias to complete more up and coming projects.
